

2011 TEXAS HIGH POINT AWARD RULES

NTASHA (North Texas American Saddlebred Horse Association), TASHA (Texas American Saddlebred Horse Association), and SASHA (San Antonio American Saddlebred Horse Association) are proud to be the sponsors of the 2011 Texas High Point Awards.

The Texas High Point Awards Banquet will be hosted by a rotation of the above three clubs and will be presented early in the following calendar year (the date depending on what the hosting club picks).

A listing of the current points can be found on www.texassaddlebreds.com under Texas High Points.

High Point Awards are earned by the following High Point System which will be kept by Janie Hamilton.

Horses in performance classes must be purebred American Saddlebreds registered with ASHA, ASHA of Canada, or ASHA of Great Britain. The owner of the horse must be a member of NTASHA, TASHA, or SASHA. If a horse is being shown by a junior exhibitor (that is a member of NTASHA, TASHA, or SASHA), but the horse is owned by the parents (who are not a member of NTASHA, TASHA, or SASHA) the horse will not be eligible. Please get a family membership.

Riders in equitation classes must be members of NTASHA, TASHA, or SASHA.

In the Academy Performance Division, the rider is judged on the riders' horsemanship and the overall picture of the rider and horse. Therefore (as of 2011) the rider must be a member of NTASHA, TASHA, or SASHA.

In the Academy Equitation Division, the equitation rider is judged on basic equitation skills. Therefore the rider must be a member of NTASHA, TASHA, or SASHA.

The Texas High Point Awards calendar years runs from December 1, 2010 until November 30, 2011.

If you join any one of the three clubs by March 1, 2011, your points will be accumulated for the whole calendar year. If you join after March 1, your points will count starting on the date that you joined and will continue until the end of the calendar year.
